

Doon has set stage for a variety of acts

By K. Bradburn-Rosen

The Doon Station, a downtown bar, brought an array of noteworthy acts to the stage last year to an audience of about 100 spectators.

As early as 1971, Doon gave its audience a wide variety of acts.

That year, both the Thompson and Copier played in just one year. The Thompson was not performing in the bar since early 1971.

At the end of 1971, the Thompson was not performing in the bar since early 1971.

A band that had been called the Doon was not performing in the bar since early 1971.

Alumni Affairs office marries past and present

By Brenda Bicknell

Since 1982, the Alumni Affairs office at Conestoga College has been keeping the past and present of the college.

Alumni Affairs is a link between the college and the alumni community. "We began with a group of graduates in 1982 and worked to build a community," said Mary Wright, alumni affairs director. "We began with a group of graduates in 1982 and worked to build a community."
